APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Please tell us about your interest in the National Youth Council role. How do you see yourself contributing to UNICEF's work advancing child rights?
2. We all have different backgrounds that shape us, both in who we become and what we value. How will your identity or lived experiences shape and contribute to your experience in this role particularly in representing youth and advancing child rights?
3. What feedback have you received recently, and how have you grown from it?
4. Describe a time when you had to lead a project with a team from beginning to end and reach a clear goal. What were your strengths and weaknesses when working on this team? What was the ultimate result?
5. At a national level, what is one key issue that you see impacting young people the most? If you could develop a project to positively impact the issue, what would it look like?
6. Now is your chance to show us who you are in a creative way! Share your resume, a video, a slide, or any materials that you see relevant. Include max 2 items.
