

children first.

Global Citizenship Fellowship

Class Facts

GCF Enrollment

1,600 applications received,
1.1% (18) of applicants
were accepted

Countries the Fellows have collectively volunteered, studied, or worked abroad in

1

- High School Class Valedictorian
- Teach for America Alum
- AmeriCorps Alum
- Fellow studied Fashion Design
- NCAA Water Polo Champion
- Fellow received the 2015 United Macedonian Diaspora's '40 Under 40 Award'

2

- Fulbright Scholars
- Peace Corps Volunteers
- Congressional Action Team Members

14

Languages spoken at the intermediate or advanced levels, including: Arabic, Bulgarian, English, Farsi, French, Greek, Hebrew, Hindi, Italian, Macedonian, Portuguese, Serbian, Spanish, and Swahili

Fellows enjoy hiking, yoga, diving, bungee jumping, whitewater kayaking, trapezing, softball, volleyball, water polo, juggling, cooking, and solving Rubik's cubes

7

Master Degrees

Applied Economic, Community Health and Urban Health, Education – Community and Social Change, International Law, Curriculum and Instruction, Public Health, and Women's and Gender Studies

17

Areas of studies in undergrad

Agricultural Business, Biology, Diplomacy and World Affairs, Economics, Gender Studies, Geology, Humanities for Teaching, International Relations, International Studies, Italian, Media Studies, Neuroscience, Peace, War and Defense, Psychology, Political Science, Public Health, and Sociology

The UNICEF USA Global Citizenship Fellowship is a highly-competitive, full-time, two year program that prepares diverse, committed, and globally minded individuals for effective leadership in public service.