

Advocacy

Get to Know Your Legislators

UNICEF USA supports UNICEF's work, and other efforts in support of the world's children, through advocacy, education and fundraising in the United States. Successful advocacy for UNICEF relies on supporters like you to reach out to Members of Congress on matters that affect the survival, protection and development of children everywhere. Building relationships with your U.S. Representatives and U.S. Senators is critical to ensuring that the U.S. Government puts children first in U.S. foreign policy and global funding.

Where to start? Get to know them!

My Congressional District: _____

Name of Representative #1:

Political Party (check): Democrat Republican Independent

New or re-elected member? (Circle One) Year Elected: _____

Is your Representative on the House Appropriations Committee?

Yes No

Is your Representative on the House Foreign Affairs Committee?

Yes No

Share one fact you learned about your Representative's position on foreign aid:

Name of Senator #1:

Political Party (check): Democrat Republican Independent

New or re-elected member? (Circle One) Year Elected: _____

Is your Senator on the Senate Appropriations Committee?

Yes No

Is your Senator on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee?

Yes No

Share one fact you learned about your Senator's position on foreign aid:

Name of Senator #2:

Political Party (check): Democrat Republican Independent

New or re-elected member? (Circle One) Year Elected: _____

Is your Senator on the Senate Appropriations Committee?

Yes No

Is your Senator on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee?

Yes No

Share one fact you learned about your Senator's position on foreign aid: