

UNICEF Clubs Know Your Resources

People

Your School and Local Clubs

Each campus has a wealth of resources to help your club be successful.

- Use your campus advisor, service-learning office and student activities or affairs personnel to help accomplish your club's goals.
- Consider partnering with other student clubs, cultural centers on campus, the newspaper and other campus institutions.
- Connect with schools in your area to collaborate or learn from their events and techniques. Check out the club maps online to find UNICEF clubs near you!

UNICEF Campus Initiative and High School National Councils

A member of the National Council will contact you at the beginning of your term. You can contact your National Council member at the email below. Remember, National Council members are club leaders just like you and here to support you!

The Youth Engagement Team

The staff in the Youth Engagement Team is available to help guide you through the process of becoming a vibrant Campus Initiative or High School Club and assist you when you need help. Contact us with questions at:
volunteer@unicefusa.org.

Global Citizenship Fellows

The U.S. Fund for UNICEF also employs Global Citizenship Fellows. They aim to inspire their communities to take action for the world's children by engaging local groups and cultivating awareness. A global citizen is someone who understands global interconnectivity, respects and values diversity, has the ability to challenge injustice and inequalities and takes action in a way that is personally meaningful.

Connect with a Global Citizenship Fellow in your region. Contact: volunteer@unicefusa.org.

Content & Materials

Back-to-School Kit

An assortment of promotional materials are provided in our back-to-school kits. Once you have re-registered each August on our website, you will receive your kit to help you strengthen your recruitment, club unity and education efforts.

Volunteer Stories

Learn about what other volunteers are doing around the country. Read through their blog posts and get ideas on how you could take action in a similar way on behalf of the world's children. Read up on the latest story at unicefusa.org/volunteerstories or share your own!

Volunteer Store

This is a volunteer-only online store where you can purchase promotional items that can be used for events and activities or just to demonstrate your UNICEF pride. Items like UNICEF posters, buttons, T-shirts and hats are available for purchase online at zazzle.com/unicefusa. Keep in mind that these are not to be used as fundraising tools — the U.S. Fund for UNICEF receives no proceeds. They are there to help you feel a part of the UNICEF team.

Country-Specific Information

Need information on UNICEF's work in a specific country? You can find everything you need at unicef.org/infobycountry. You can create your own resources or flyers as well — just be sure to send them to volunteer@unicefusa.org for approval prior to distribution.

News Releases

Keep up to date on UNICEF and its programs worldwide by going to the News Releases page at unicefusa.org/newsreleases.

Voices of Youth

Voices of Youth is a UNICEF-sponsored website that provides youth from all over the world with a forum to explore, speak out and take action on issues that affect them. Go to unicef.org/voy.

Every Child and Annual Report

Every Child is a U.S. Fund for UNICEF magazine that can be used as an educational tool to help promote your club. The annual report is a yearly publication that provides an overview of the U.S. Fund for UNICEF's work. You can view these online at unicefusa.org/about/publications.

Resource Calendar

Check out the Year-Long Calendar online for suggestions on club activities each month.
