Policies and Best Practices
Follow these guidelines to ensure success!

By registering as a club on our website, you have agreed to the following policies, rules and regulations. Protecting the name and reputation of UNICEF and UNICEF USA is the responsibility of every group.

UNICEF USA is committed to:

- Child Rights: all children have a right to survive and thrive
- Equity: focus on the most vulnerable and marginalized children
- Global Citizenship: promote understanding of our global interdependence by taking action to challenge injustice and inequity at home and abroad
- Youth Empowerment: meaningful inclusion and participation of young people, recognizing children as agents of change starting from early childhood

By operating according to these values, we are working to mobilize the support of Americans and be a dynamic organizing force to take a stand for and with children everywhere.

All members are required to stay up to date on all UNICEF USA policies and procedures and in contact with UNICEF USA staff.

All activities should be approved by club officers according to the guidelines below:

- Maintain high standards of professionalism.
- Maintain impartiality on political issues when representing UNICEF.
- Maintain updated contact info for your leaders and members.
- All members are required to participate in club activities according to the constitution and bylaws of each individual club. To be considered an active member of a UNICEF Club, you have to attend at least half of all club meetings and events during the year.
- Advisors, members and leaders should behave in accordance with UNICEF USA’s child safeguarding code of conduct.
UNICEF Club Member Policies

1 Club Member Agreement As a registered club member, you agreed to a set of terms and conditions that will help UNICEF maintain its high standards of professionalism. You agreed to uphold the positive image of UNICEF USA and UNICEF.

2 Certificate of Insurance and Nonprofit Status On occasion, a venue being used for a UNICEF event might require a certificate of insurance. You can request one via your fundraising and event application. Once approved, the certificate will be provided. UNICEF USA’s federal tax ID number is 13-1760110. The IRS letter confirming our 501(c)(3) status is available for download at unicefusa.org/faq.

3 Conflict of Interest As a UNICEF USA club member you shall not take any action that would result in a member’s financial benefit.

4 Expenses and Revenue Covering and controlling the cost of any UNICEF USA-related activity is an important job. As the organizer, you should have a very clear understanding of the realistic revenue and expenses. It is critical that events that support UNICEF programs are cost-effective and are viewed as appropriate to the community. Expenses should not exceed 25 percent of all collected revenue. This goal should be outlined in your budget during the very beginning stages of planning. All funds should be submitted within a month of an event.

5 Impartiality UNICEF USA is a nonpartisan organization. UNICEF club members demonstrate impartiality on any political issues when representing UNICEF. Members engage in political advocacy on behalf of UNICEF only when the public is encouraged to participate in UNICEF-supported legislation. For more information about which advocacy activities are sanctioned, please visit unicefusa.org/advocate.

6 Collaboration Many UNICEF club members work with other nongovernmental organizations and other United Nations agencies, such as the United Nations Associations (UNA). We encourage you to work with these groups to promote our message. However, because UNICEF is a neutral organization, UNICEF club members cannot sign any petition or declaration that takes a political stance on any issue in the name of UNICEF USA or UNICEF. If you wish to sign such documents, you must do so as individuals, independent of UNICEF USA.

7 Nondiscrimination Policy It is the policy of UNICEF USA that there will be no discrimination or harassment in its programs, activities or employment based on race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age or any other basis prohibited by law. It is expected that your club and each member uphold this.

8 Public Relations for UNICEF As you conduct UNICEF activities, you may come into contact with a member of the press. In all of your communication with the press, you should make clear to journalists that you are a volunteer and not a UNICEF staff member or spokesperson — and are therefore unable to answer specific questions about UNICEF’s mission and programs. You are, of course, encouraged to make comments about your UNICEF USA activities in your club. Please see additional information on our website at unicefusa.org/news. If a reporter wishes to speak to a staff person, or if you have a local media contact, please email volunteer@unicefusa.org and we will contact the Public Relations department.

9 Logo Approval Any materials, such as T-Shirts or posters, that have UNICEF USA’s logo must be sent to volunteer@unicefusa.org for approval.
